GAIT Equine Assisted Services Earns Prestigious Professional Reaccreditation from PATH Intl.

GAIT Equine Assisted Services, in Milford, PA, Earns Prestigious Professional Reaccreditation

GAIT Equine Assisted Services, in Milford, PA, once again recently earned the designation of Premier Accredited Center by the Professional Association of Therapeutic Horsemanship International (PATH Intl.).

GAIT Equine Assisted Services Center partners individuals who have special needs, and others, with certified professionals and equines to achieve health, wellness and learning goals. By earning PATH Intl. Premier Accredited Center status, GAIT Equine Assisted Services has demonstrated it is operating in accordance with nearly 200 PATH Intl. standards for the equine-assisted services (EAS) industry. Out of the more than 760 PATH Intl. Member Centers, only 250 hold this prestigious distinction.

To become a PATH Intl. Premier Accredited Center, GAIT Equine Assisted Services successfully passed an evaluation by trained PATH Intl. site visitors. Center evaluations cover a wide range of topics such as horse management, participant safety, equipment, quality of instruction, facility operations, volunteerism and best-business administrative practices, all with specific standards that must be met. These standards were developed and adopted by the PATH Intl. membership to ensure that centers follow procedures essential to safe, quality EAS programming. PATH Intl. Premier Accredited Center is a designation indicating to the public that a center has met a rigorous set of quality and safety standards. PATH Intl. requires that Premier Accredited Centers be re-accredited every five years to maintain this designation.

"I wish to thank GAIT Equine Assisted Services for being part of the PATH Intl Community and to congratulate them on their success in renewing their PATH Intl. Premier Accredited Center status. This is a true reflection of GAIT Equine Assisted Services continued dedication to provide quality services and opportunities for individuals seeking equine-assisted services," said PATH Intl. Chief Executive Officer Kevin Price. "PATH Intl. Accreditation is internationally recognized within the equine-assisted services industry as a commitment to safety and the highest level of professional standards in the management and operation of an equine facility and equine-assisted services."

About PATH Intl.:

The Professional Association of Therapeutic Horsemanship International® (PATH Intl.), formed in 1969, advances professional equine-assisted services (EAS) by empowering its members, credentialed professionals, partners and the public through rigorously developed standards, credentials and education that recognize the power of the equine-human relationship. At 721 member centers, more than 71,000 children and adults with special needs, including 8,000 veterans, may find improved health, wellness, a sense of pride, independence and fun through involvement with horses. PATH Intl. members, credentialed professionals and member centers uphold the PATH Intl. Standards, developed and adopted by the PATH Intl. membership, to ensure centers and professionals follow procedures essential to providing safe, humane, gold-standard-quality EAS programming to the public, in the broad areas of horsemanship, therapy and learning. Among its multiple EAS certification programs, PATH Intl. proudly offers the Certified Therapeutic Riding Instructor certification (the PATH Intl. CTRI®); the first and only independently accredited certification program in EAS.
